

Free adaptation training for newcomers

At the training, you will find out...

... how to find information on your rights and obligations

... what to do in case of an emergency and who is responsible for maintaining security in Estonia

... about a digital identity document, where and how to use it, and how to give a digital signature

... how to create a bank account

... how the healthcare system works and where to find information on healthcare services

... about transport and traffic management, as well as about the topics of the right to drive and public transport

... about social norms and interpersonal communication in Estonia

... about the core values of the Estonian society

... how to find information about cultural and sports events

... which additional services are offered to foreigners and where to find additional information on them

